

Summer Reading 2007-2008
English III—10th grade

Required Book: Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird.

Lee's only novel is a tale of a lawyer and his family who struggle with racial conflict in a Southern town.

Assessment: Students will take a test following class discussion within the first week of school. Students will also write an essay.

Books to be read during the year:

Julius Caesar – William Shakespeare (in the text book)

Antigone—Sophocles (in the text book)

1984 – George Orwell

Night—Elie Wiesel

Paperbacks can be bought on the first day of school from the teacher or at the Used Book Sale.